

Chittoor Campus celebrates first anniversary of theatre complex

The Chittoor Campus of CMC Vellore celebrated the first anniversary of its operation theatre complex on the 31st of August, 2017. More than 1600 surgeries were conducted here during the last one year.

The celebrations started with a word of prayer by Chaplain Rev Manibhushan followed by a short sermon by Chaplain Rev Pierson. Associate Director of Chittoor, Dr Nihal Thomas, spoke about the history of the “surgical escapades” at the campus. He highlighted the humble beginnings and how greatly God has blessed the endeavour, and thanked all the surgical units for their earnest efforts and co-operation.

This was followed by various surgeons from CMC Vellore sharing their experiences at the Chittoor Campus over the past year. Those who spoke included Dr Vrisha Madhuri, Head of Paediatric Orthopaedics; Dr Deepak Abraham, Head of Endocrine Surgery; Dr Banerjee Jesudasan, former Head of Surgery, and Dr V T K Titus, Head of Orthopaedics.

Former Associate Director of Chittoor Campus, Dr Raju Titus, expressed his joy over the growth and developments in the campus. The General Superintendent and the Deputy Nursing Superintendent of CMC Vellore expressed their appreciation of the entire surgical team at the Chittoor campus. The programme came to an end with a skit by the theatre staff and an elaborate cake-cutting ceremony led by Dr Nandini Korula, Head of Anaesthesia, Chittoor Campus. Sister Sheila, theatre in-charge, proposed the vote of thanks.

