

Women's Day celebrated in the tribal villages of Jawadhi hills

On the 7th and 15th of March 2019, World Women's Day was celebrated at the Chinnaveerapat and Amattankollai villages in the Jawadhi Hills. This was an initiative of the social workers of the Department of Community Health, working alongside the nurses and the occupational therapists of the department. Read more.

Read about the outreach work done by the Community Health Department in the Jawadhi hills and other places.

View photos of the Model Villages project being carried out in these hills, under 'Holistic Care'.