Autorickshaws, buses and taxis are available at Katpadi station for the 12 km journey to the Christian Medical College. Buses from Chennai will bring you right into the town of Vellore.

Vellore City
Vellore is the headquarters of Vellore District. Its population is about 500,000. It is a marketing centre for a fairly prosperous agricultural area. The streets are lined with small shops and crowded with people, cyclists, cars, buses, lorries and livestock. There is a 13th Century fort in the centre of town. The fort has played a well-known part in Indian history.

The Christian Medical College and Hospital Campuses
The hospital campus is situated in the middle of Vellore town while the college campus is situated at Bagayam, 7 km away from the hospital.

All medical students live in hostels on the college campus in Bagayam. The pre-clinical subjects are taught at the college campus. In addition, on the college campus, there are 3 patient care units - the Community Health Department which runs the 80-bed CHAD hospital, the Rehabilitation Institute for physically handicapped persons and the Mental Health Centre, which is CMC’s Department of Psychiatry, which includes a training centre for mentally challenged children.

All other clinical departments are on the hospital campus in Vellore town, except for the Ophthalmology Department which is located at the Schell Eye Hospital on a separate campus 2 km south of the main hospital, and RUHSA (Rural Unit for Health and Social Affairs), a comprehensive integrated rural health and development project, located 20 miles northwest of Vellore.

Language
Tamil is the language spoken by most of the people in the state of Tamil Nadu where Vellore is located. The national language, Hindi, is also spoken. However, many South Indians, including shopkeepers, know English, so most visitors who speak English, do not have too much trouble making themselves understood. Elective students may need to ask someone to help translate when talking to patients. However, English is the medium of instruction in the college.

Postal Service
There are post offices on both the hospital and college campuses. These are open every day, except Sundays and national holidays. The main post office in the centre of Vellore provides 24 hour service. Mail delivery is, by and large, reliable.

It is advisable to register all letters that are of special importance, such as those with exposed film, cheques and all packets and parcels.

Banking
The Central Bank of India and the State Bank of India have branches within the campuses and across the road near the hospital. Most bank ATM (hole in the wall) machines accept debit and credit cards from overseas banks. You are not advised to bring travelers’ cheques because many banks in Vellore refuse to cash these.

Food
There are several canteens inside the hospital campus where safe food is available at reasonable rates. There are a number of vegetarian and non-vegetarian restaurants near the hospital with food at reasonable prices - a vegetarian meal costs about Rs.150 and a non-vegetarian meal about Rs.250. It may be best to avoid uncooked food and any food cooled to room temperature. It is also better to avoid drinking water outside the hospital and college campuses unless you are sure it has been boiled or comes from a safe source. Bottled beverages in the market are safe except for those with a glass marble seal. In India, coffee and tea are traditionally made with boiled milk and sugar. Shop-keepers will provide these drinks without milk and/or sugar if you give specific instructions. There are several bakeries close to the hospital where bread, biscuits, cakes, pastries, butter, jam, peanut butter, tinned cheese, sardines, sausages, tuna fish, etc, can be purchased. A variety of fruits are readily available. Fried snacks sold in street stalls are mainly vegetarian and can be very spicy. Consumption of alcoholic beverages on both the hospital and college campuses is not permitted.

Clothing
The dress code for work is formal. Suits and ties are not worn. Generally, men wear short/long sleeved shirts, trousers and sandals/shoes. For women, sleeved dresses, long skirts/trousers and modest blouses, punjabi pants and tunic or sarees with sandals are appropriate. T-shirts are not advised. White coats are not usually worn by doctors or medical students. Cotton is cooler than synthetic fabrics. Shoes and sandals are quite cheap and can be bought ready-made. Cloth shops and tailoring shops abound, and it is comparatively inexpensive and quick to have clothes stitched to size. Ready-made clothes are also easily available. We advise you to be well dressed at work.

Immunizations and Post exposure Prophylaxis
Please contact your travel clinic to obtain information on prophylactic measures to be taken for your visit to India.

Universal precautions are implemented throughout Christian Medical College. Since elective/visitor observer students are not performing procedures, the likelihood of blood borne exposures are extremely low. However in case of exposure, post-exposure prophylaxis for Hepatitis B and HIV are available at Christian Medical College.

Health Problems
If you need help with any health problems, please contact the CHAD hospital in the college campus or the Staff Student Health Clinic in the Hospital during working hours and Accident and Emergency department in the hospital campus or the casualty in CHAD hospital in the college campus out of working hours. They will arrange for the necessary care. Elective/visitor observer students will have to pay for their health care. Use the emergency contact numbers under contact information for any emergencies.

What to Bring

It is advisable to have a good torch/flashlight for walking about the campuses at night and for unannounced power cuts which may occur. All toilet articles such as soap, powder, shaving cream and blades, toilet paper, shampoos, sanitary napkins, tampons, etc are readily obtainable in local shops. In general, the only medical instrument that needs to be brought is a stethoscope. Reflex hammers can be borrowed and ophthalmoscopes are available in the hospital. Electricity supply is 220 volt, AC, 50Hz. Please bring a few copies of your passport size and stamp size photograph, copies of your passport, copies of visa and soft copies of the above.

Most of the commonly used medical text books are available in the institutional libraries. These books can be referred to in the libraries but will not be loaned out. Library timings on week days are as follows:

- College: 8.00 a.m. to 11 p.m.
- Hospital: 7.30 a.m. to 12 midnight.

There are small book stores in Vellore which sell standard medical text books. Many Asian editions of medical text books are subsidized and as such will often be cheaper than the same books in developed countries.

Transportation in Vellore

Institutional buses ply between the hospital and college campuses at specific times. A transport schedule will be given to you. Timings can be ascertained from the Hospital Transport Department. The transport department can be contacted at 04162282022 by phone and transport@cmcvellore.ac.in by email. Town buses ply between the 2 campuses every 5-10 minutes, from 5 AM to 10 PM. These buses can be boarded from a bus stop one block west of the hospital. Autorickshaws and taxis are easily available, but are not metered.

Recreation

To a large degree, the medical students and staff provide their own entertainment. There are facilities for basketball, tennis, badminton, volleyball, hockey, cricket, football (soccer) and athletics at the college. In addition, there are tennis courts on the hospital and college campuses. Apart from the medical libraries at the hospital and college, there are libraries maintained by the Chaplaincy Department where anyone is welcome to borrow religious and general reading books and magazines. There are a number of movie theaters in town, most of which show films in various Indian languages. Only one or two theatres show English movies at any given time. Bicycles are readily available for hire. There is a swimming pool next to the college campus available for use. The beach at Mahabalipuram on the east coast, 60km south of Chennai and a 4 hour bus ride from Vellore, is a good weekend recreation spot. Vellore has clubs such as the Rotary, Lions, Round Table and a Ladies’ Recreation Club.
The medical college has a regular schedule of extra-curricular activities, which visitors are welcome to attend.

Christian Worship and Fellowship

Beautiful chapels are located in the heart of both the hospital and college campuses. These are always open for prayer and meditation. Regular services are held here and you are welcome to participate. The worship schedule is as follows:

Hospital

Monday to Saturday: Prayers at 7 - 7.20 a.m. Sunday - English service at 6.30 p.m. (Holy Communion is served on the first Sunday of the month)

College

There are choirs that sing in English at the chapel services at both the hospital and college. Visiting students are welcome to join. Just go along to choir practice at 4 p.m. each Sunday at the auditorium/chapel.

Students are welcome to see the chaplains in their offices at the hospital any time during the working days.

There are many churches in Vellore, most of which have services only in the local language. Services in English are regularly held at the St. John's Church in the Fort at 7.30 a.m. and 9.30 a.m. each Sunday. There are institutional buses operating from the hospital and college to these services. St. John's Church is part of the largest Protestant denomination in this area, called the Church of South India (CSI).

Notices and News

Notices regarding all special academic programmes and other activities will be put up on various notice boards in the hospital. Elective students are welcome to attend all of these programmes. A weekly news sheet, the CMC & H Weekly News, containing items of interest in the institution, is circulated every Monday and put up on various bulletin boards.

Living Expenses

Living expenditure per day would amount to approximately Rs.800 (approx. U.S. $12) which includes room rent, food and other expenses.

The Foreign Exchange Regulations Act in India prevents the institution from payment of any money by way of refund, etc. for any payment made in foreign currency. Other refunds are also not possible.

Miscellaneous Information

The Christian Medical College is a Christian institution which aims to impart to women and men an education of the highest grade in the art and science of medicine and to equip them in the spirit of Christ, for service in the relief of suffering and the promotion of health. This is a residential college in which interest lies not only in providing training in professional skills, but also in cultivating a sense of community and of commitment, a growth of character and a sensitivity to the needs of others. This is expressed in the College motto, which is based on Christian scripture, “Not to be ministered unto, but to minister.”

When you come to C.M.C. for an elective period, you come not just to attend classes and clinics, see patients in the out-patient clinics and wards, and to take part in other academic activities, but you also come to live in the community. The cultural expectations and norms of behavior of a community here in India, and especially of a Christian community, may be different from that in your own college and to which you are accustomed. Foreign students coming here must be aware of and sensitive to these differences, and while here, consciously try to accept the norms of this community for the period of their stay. The use of alcoholic beverages on the hospital and college campuses and distribution or use of marijuana (ganja), LSD or other addictive or psychotropic drugs is strictly prohibited. In addition, you may be used to living in mixed dormitories, but in this institution single men and women are not allowed to stay together.

We would welcome you to participate in as many institutional community activities as possible to enable you to understand the traditions and ethics of the place. We would specially invite you to attend worship programmes in English on all Sundays in either the College or Hospital Chapels. Members of the Evangelical Union of India meet in the College campus every Sunday. You can find the place of meeting with the help of the staff of the Principal’s Office.

Apart from the specific departments to which you would like to be posted, you may find it useful to attend some of the teaching programmes arranged for the final year clinical students, details of which may be obtained from the Curriculum Office situated in the ASHA building on the hospital campus.

It is hoped that your experience here will be profitable to you. The members of the community here, in turn, will try to make your time here enjoyable and rewarding.
