

CORPORA, an anatomy teaching programme for school children, held

The Department of Anatomy organised an anatomy teaching programme for school children - CORPORA 2018 - from the 9th to the 12th of October, 2018. The aim of the programme was to help students get a better understanding of human anatomy.

Read the full story

