

Workshop on Hospital Management for students held

The Department of Hospital Management Studies & Staff Training and Development conducted a workshop on Hospital Management and its importance on 26th October, 2018, for students of Hospital Management as well as for those from the Medical, Nursing, and Allied Health streams. Read more

