This year, as each batch planted their respective trees, the song "Grow, Grow, Grow" played, with alumni joining in the singing. We extend our gratitude to Dr. Sujith Chandy, Dr. Gina Chandy, and their family for providing the vocal version of the song, and to Dr. Vinod Abraham for the instrumental arrangement.

College Motto Award Citation:

Dr. Ajay C. Raju began his medical journey at CMC Vellore in 1995. After completing his undergraduate studies in 2001, he worked at CSI Basel Mission Hospital in Gadag. The lack of a surgeon there inspired him to pursue a career in surgery. He returned to CMC Vellore to complete his MS in General Surgery from 2003 to 2006. A chance discovery of a letter from Ida Scudder, dated from the 1930s, further fueled his passion and strengthened his commitment to return to Gadag rather than settle in his hometown of Bangalore.

Ajay married Savita in 2005 and they returned to Gadag in 2006 upon completion of his PG, where Ameya was born in 2007. The couple jumped into the thick of work and soon realized the need to improve and change things. From the open surgeries and limited resources, Ajay rallied to introduce laparoscopic surgeries in 2007 and soon by 2009, in collaboration with his OBG colleagues expanded the services to laparoscopic Gynaecology. In 2011, the surgical load had increased, the OT complex was expanded and 3 new OT's were built. Backed by an ICU with ventilators, complex cases could now be taken up.

Ajay went on to train in all that was required for the community and the Hospital – Endoscopy, Urology, Intensive Care and many other specialities in the years to come. Understanding the need for a physician, Savita took on the calling and trained to be a physician at the Baptist Hospital, Bangalore in General Medicine.

The 3 years that ensued while she was training in Bangalore were the most trying – Ameya in Belgaum, Ajay in Gadag and Savita in Bangalore. But they bore this trial keeping the greater interests of the Institution and the needs of the people they were called to serve. Savita returned as a consultant in 2011 and since 2019, has been the sole physician, running the medicine department, managing the OPD, wards, ICU/ HDU & emergency services – 24*7, 365 days.

Ajay also understood he had to lead from the front and trained to be an effective leader by completing his PG Diploma in Hospital Administration in 2010. He played a major role in the expansion of the Hospital, with new infrastructure being added between 2009 and 2013. This included a private wing, general ward and ICUs. The hospital expanded from 50 to 130 beds. The hospital was soon self-sustaining and extended its services and income to infrastructure developments for orphanages and church buildings of the Diocese. Ajay took over as the Medical Superintendent in 2019 and focused on offering quality healthcare at affordable costs.

In 2020, the hospital achieved the NABH entry-level accreditation, which enabled them to enrol in Government schemes and offer private health insurance. The hospital team took on the challenge posed by the COVID pandemic by serving all the patients who came to them for care, as the single largest private healthcare facility in the district. The pandemic times also highlighted their need to upgrade their services and offer super speciality care. The hospital was modernized by upgrading the OTs, and ICUs, and a new CT scan was purchased. A Cath Lab unit was established in 2022. All this was achieved without any external funding. Ajay roped in surgical specialists as visiting consultants, to provide Neurosurgical, orthopaedic joint replacements, paediatric surgical and urological service apart from general surgery, OBG and general orthopaedics; while Savita supported the medical super-specialist care for Cardiology, Nephrology and Gastroenterology.

The hospital was awarded the best-performing hospital in Gadag district in implementing the Ayushman Bharath scheme by the Government of Karnataka for 2 years – 2022 & 2024. This empowered the hospital to offer their super speciality services to more people who could not afford the treatment earlier.

Ajay also saw the need to start educational programmes in the hospital. They started the General Duty Assistant Skill Programme in 2021, which is recognised by the Health Sector Skill Council of India. In 2022, they started DNB diploma programs in Family Medicine & Paediatrics recognised by the NBE, New Delhi. In 2024, they established a BSc Nursing College, recognised by Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Bangalore.

Ajay has also been actively involved with the Christian community in Gadag. He is a church elder and also a member of the various committees of CSI Karnataka Northern Diocese. These responsibilities and relationships developed over the years have kept relations between the hospital and the church harmonious. Along with being a medical superintendent, he also manages two orphanages in Gadag, coming under the diocese.

He is a loved faculty and travels to present at national conferences. In 2021, his surgical work was recognised by our Alma mater, which bestowed the Dr. Emmanuel Sunder Raj Memorial Award for exemplary service in the missions by a surgeon. Ajay and his family, have committed their lives to be a beacon of Christ's love to all in the Gadag district and continue to embody the motto of his Alma Mater - Not to be served, but to serve!!

Alumni Award Citation:

In the small village of Kallukootam, Nagercoil, Kanyakumari district, in the year 1952, this quiet, diligent and hardworking gentleman, Mr Albert. His father was a compounder and his mother a homemaker.

After his schooling, Mr. Albert went on to get trained in typewriting and shorthand and stood first in the district competitive examinations for English typewriting. This prepared him to support his family financially. At the young age of 21, he travelled to Madras looking for a government job. He got a job as a typist cum clerk at a block-making company called Cherians Process. After 3 years there, he underwent training as a Clerical Cadre Apprentice under the National Apprenticeship Programme in the Handicrafts and Handlooms Exports Corporation of India for a year. He worked for a year more there and gained experience in all the sections of this company.

A strong believer in God and the power of prayer, he prayed earnestly and specifically for a job 100 miles away from Madras and a salary of Rs.300 a month. The prayer was answered when he noticed an advertisement in the Hindu Newspaper – vacancy for stenographers at CMC Vellore. With no second thoughts, he applied immediately and he was selected for the job for a salary of Rs 314 per month confirming that this was the will of God in his life. He was welcomed into the institution by the then Additional General Superintendent Mr. H.D. Moses, father of Dr Prabhakar Moses.

Thus, in March 1978, he began his career as a junior stenographer. His job offer was for 3 months which stretched from March 1978 to October 2012, 36 long years, before he retired as Senior Secretary. His work as the Secretary of the Alumni Office, working along with countless alumni and staff in the institution was exemplary. He worked tirelessly with help from Drs. Sara and Suranjan Bhattacharji to type in the first alumni directory. This was hard work - many long nights going on to early mornings, spent typing out these lists.

His term in the Alumni office taught him many lessons including discipline, punctuality, event management and much more. His time in the office made him grow into the man he became, gave purpose to life and became the strong foundation on which his family grew and was blessed. He also enjoyed all the interactions with numerous alumni with a warm and welcoming smile, a few words of enquiry and then moving on to do whatever the alumnus requested him to do. He was awarded the Best Secretary Award of the Year in 2011 by the Rotary Club of Vellore South.

He was supported by his strong and faithful wife, Mrs. Beulah who joined the kitchens of the Big Bungalow and Alumni House and made countless meals for Alumni and others. She continues to do so even after the official retirement age.

He is blessed with 2 children, Mr. Daniel Beno, his elder son, working as a Senior Demonstrator in the Department of Pathology, CMC and his younger son, Mr. Abhishek, working as a Scientist at Novo Nordisk in Bangalore.

At the end of his term in 2012, he was requested to continue for 2 more years till we could train someone to take on this humongous task onto their shoulders. Following his retirement from the Alumni Office in 2014, he continued to work for 8 more years on the campus. He continues to support his children and grandchildren and his wife, in every way he can.

In recognition of his dedicated service to the institution especially to the Alumni Office, the Alumni Association of the Christian Medical College, Vellore is proud to honour Mr. E. Albert with the Alumni Award for the year 2024.

Later, senior Undergraduate students of the College of Nursing listened to the experience of the extramural alumni working in missions, international, and government sectors.
